The Original Ludwig Foot Pedal.

The Ludwig Drum Co. was founded in 1909 by William and Theobald Ludwig, in a Chicago garage. They manufactured the first practical foot pedal, designed to play the fast four beats to a bar rhythm of Ragtime music. Instantly, a drum dynasty was born.

The Ludwig brothers, both accomplished percussionists of the time, also manufactured and sold sound effects that brought silent movies to life. Ludwig & Ludwig then began making snare drums, such as the world famous Black Beauty. Through these innovations, Ludwig earned the respect of professional drummers.

Ludwig soon introduced the first catalogued drum outfits to accommodate the music of the day. This sparked the creation of superior snare throw-offs, toms, bass drums, and other percussion products, of which many are patented.

Chicago's stock yards provided a vital source of the finest calfskin for making drumheads, keeping the Windy City and Ludwig at the center of the drum world.

The Ludwig Drum Co. was influential in the growing school band movement. Manufacturing drums and timpani of all varieties for concert and marching music, quickly set Ludwig apart from all other drum companies. A reputation for building fine percussion products and strong devotion to education, put Ludwig at the pinnacle of percussion. Hundreds of drumming demonstrations were presented throughout America, bringing new trends to the attention of composers, music directors, and percussionists.

THE LUDWIG LEGACY

On February 8, 1964, a new musical event burst from the TV screens across America.

The Beatles had arrived, featuring Ringo Starr and his Ludwig Black Oyster drums. Overnight, everyone wanted a drum set like Ringo's. The drum boom was born, and Ludwig was at the heart of the excitement.

Ludwig expanded to meet the intense demand for its products. The drums' sound and value attracted the world's most famous Band, Jazz and Rock drummers to Ludwig.

Today the Ludwig name and tradition continues for a new generation of drummers.

The 1928 Original Engraved Black Beauty.

Our craftsmen are committed to creating the finest drums and accessories to make you, the drummer, sound and play your best, on the best sounding drums... Ludwig.

Our new catalog is a continuation of our legacy, from the first black and white catalog of 1912, to the first full color catalog of 1925. For more than 85 years, and into the future, Ludwig is committed to supply drummers throughout the world with quality drums and accessories.

That's why we proudly say, LUDWIG:
"The Most Famous Name on Drums."

The shell interior is carefully sanded, and finished with polyurethane to seal against climatic changes and provide for maximum resonance. Polyurethane also highlights the wood's natural beauty.

Hardware Add-ons
Using Ludwig's add-on hardware, outfits can be customized with cymbal holders, splash cymbal holders, etc., all with a series of universal clamps and our Modular adaptor.
