The Modern Drummer

The Modern Drummer

THE opportunities available the modern drummer are greater today than at any other period in the history of the profession.

And modern drum equipment too plays an important part in the rapid advance and development made by the drummer in recent years. New and improved features of design and construction enable the drummer to keep abreast and even ahead of the times.

Correct instruments not only are easier to play, but they actually inspire the user to finer and greater accomplishments. The satisfaction derived and the benefits gained by the use of the most modern and up-to-date equipment more than offset the initial cost.

As makers of "Ludwig Drums and Equipment" we are thoroughly familiar with your needs having had many years of professional experience before entering the manufacturing field.

"Drum Makers to the Profession" is a slogan that applies—for Ludwig Drums are known throughout the world and in use by over 90% of the professional drummers of today.
