PREMIER SERIES

HAND CRAFTED IN ENGLAND TO STANDARDS ABOVE ALL OTHERS

SHELL CONSTRUCTION

The heart of every drum is its shell and our Leicester based team has combined more than 80 years of design knowledge and expertise to create the new Premier Series shell. Innovative in concept, it is our most advanced shell ever, incorporating many design features exclusive to Premier and setting the Series apart from the rest of its class.

All Premier Series shells feature a slightly undersized (3mm) shell specification which when combined with our unique precision cut bearing edge profile creates increased sensitivity, enhanced resonance and a truer tone from the drum. The drumhead sits flatter on the bearing edge resulting in an extended and more versatile tuning range giving a greater lower end response, a design concept characteristic of the finest orchestral timpani drums.

Shells are formed using an 11° angled butt joint to create a natural structural integrity which gives maximum strength. Treated in our state-of-the-art microwave forming system, each ply is expertly bonded together, resulting in the most perfectly formed drum shell possible.

Premier Series custom-built shells are available in an almost endless choice of configurations. If you prefer the warmer, punchy tone of Maple for your bass drum but the rounder, brighter tone of Birch for your toms, with the Premier Series you can create the individual kit you need for the signature sound that you want.
